Dear Praying Friends and Family,

THANK YOU SOOO MUCH For Your Prayers! The house we are renting FINALLY HAS ELECTRIC! Friday, about 1PM the men came and hooked up our electric meter.

The house has been abandoned for about 2 years; and the electric was cut due to unpaid bills. It belonged to a friend of ours who passed away several years ago, and her son agreed to rent it to us if we will fix it back up. Along with other repairs, revamping the electric is one of the major steps. Thanks to your prayers, we finally have “lights” and will be able to move in shortly. We’ve been working on the house and getting the electric back since early December! ☺

The next step is to work on the water company to turn the water back on – same process, same reasons. We have a garden hose running over from the next door neighbor and are paying her for the water we use. That’s easier/safer than trying to share electric with a neighbor.

Thanks again – Prayer DOES change things!

Serving HIM Together,

Don & Zoe Peffer
